250th anniversary of the birth of Blessed Edmund Rice.

As past pupils and friends, we would like to invite you to this special event to thank the Christian Brothers and Edmund Rice schools for the gift of education and for their contribution to Irish society and culture over the last two centuries; to acknowledge, and reconcile with those who, sadly, were treated harshly or abused during their education; to reconnect with each other; and to show our support of the continued work of the Christian Brothers and Edmund Rice community in the developing world and of the ongoing trusteeship of the Edmund Rice schools in Ireland, North and South.
